The News.

From Washington we learn that an effort is to be made to remove the Seminole Indians from Florida to Arkansas, by peaceable means. Col. Rector has received instructions to proceed thither as soon as the season will permit.

The number of buildings burned at the Quarantine by the mob is thirty-two, and it was said that all the private dwellings in the infected neighborhood were to be burned. The sick from the Hospital are scattered all over New York and Brooklyn. The whole affair is one of the most dastardly outrages ever committed in a civilized community.

Capt. Hudson and the other officers of the Niagara, have been entertained by the Common Council of Jersey City, at a grand banquet.

It has been reported that gold has been found in Kansas in considerable quantities.

The People's party of Pennsylvania, that is the Democrats who refuse to endorse the Democracy of Buchanan & Co. have made their Congressional nominations for the five districts of Philadelphia County.

Yellow fever is on the increase at New Orleans.

By our Commercial Review it will be seen that the shipments of grain from Milwaukee thus far this season amount to upwards of four millions bushels.

On Saturday the New York market exhibited no important change. Our own market was quiet, and prices of shipping wheat rather lower.

The News and Gov. Randall.

The News teems, from day to day, with vindictive and vituperative assaults upon Gov. Randall, for doing what he believed to be his duty in the matter of the La Crosse Land Grant.—These angry diatribes, while they do not affect Gov. Randall, are damaging the La Crosse Company and doing serious injury to our city. In its issue of Saturday the foul mouthed News calls Governor Randall "a knave and a fool," and in justification of these epithets thus proceeds:

> His conduct towards the La Crosse Railroad Company is in perfect keeping with his other stupid and corrupt deed. He avowed to Pump Carpenter his design to "make a good thing" for his friends out of the "railroad characters." In order to do it, he refused to certify to a fact. The Company did not ask him to do anything improper—no more than they asked Bashford to, and yet they had to compensate Bashford for doing his duty. Randall understood that very well, and determined to emulate the example of Bashford. He refused to comply with the law, but followed the officers to New York city, and was reported in the New York Herald as being in conference with them.

Now these stories of Gov. Randall's "avowals" to "Pump Carpenter;" of his following the La Crosse R. R. officers to New York; of his "being in conference" there with them, &c, are so many wholesale and deliberate fabrications.—There is not a particle of truth in one of them.—Indeed they carry the lie on their face, and we copy them, not to contradict such palpable inventions, but to show to what desperate straits "the Forty" and their organs are driven. There is no man in the State who did so much to expose their evil deeds and expel them from office, as Alexander W. Randall; and there is none, therefore, whom they hate so bitterly. Hence, the persistent, but idle, invectives of the News, Wisconsin, Argus, &c.

The News Never Threatened to Bolt.

> The Sentinel is mistaken in regard to a fact, when it states that the News ever threatened to bolt the nomination of James S. Brown, if fairly made by a Democratic Convention. We did not believe that James S. Brown would be nominated. Our prediction has been verified. There is no evidence that the convention ever thought of nominating him. Messrs. Page, Lynde and Arnold each received a sufficient number of votes to raise a presumption that they were thought of by some of the delegates. In the case of James S. Brown, however, we have no evidence that any one entertained an idea of nominating him at any stage of the proceedings. —News of yesterday.

The News continues to pursue Mr. Brown with characteristic malice and mendacity. It suppresses Mr. Brown's letter to the Convention, declining to be a candidate, and gives its readers to understand that after all the efforts of friends in his behalf, he did not carry a single Delegate. Had Mr. Brown remained in the field, he would have received the vote of a majority of the Milwaukee Delegation, and would have stood a very fair chance of securing the nomination. But he became disgusted with the electioneering tricks of "the Forty," and withdrew from the canvass, two days before the Convention met. The News now pretends that it did not threaten to bolt Mr. Brown's nomination, if made. This is an after thought. Its language warranted the construction which we put upon it, and its yoke-fellows, the Madison Patriot and Waukesha Democrat, read and understood it, precisely as the Sentinel did, and rebuked the News for the threat.

Short Memory.—The Wisconsin denies that it represented Gov. Randall's friends to have been overthrown at the Prairie du Chien convention, and coolly quotes a portion of its remarks—suppressing the rest—to bear out this assertion. Here is what the Wisconsin said on the subject:

> The re-nomination of Cadwallader C. Washburne was expected by public sentiment both in and out of the State. There was the more interest felt in his success, since it was known that Gov. Randall was opposed to Washburne and preferred Luther Hanchett. Washburne's friends permitted a resolution complimentary to Gov. Randall to pass; but that resolution will reduce Washburne's majority some thousands.

Of course, the Wisconsin misrepresents the Governor in this matter, and meant its readers to understand that he had taken ground against Mr. Washburne and been defeated.

Horse Taming at the State Fair.—The Madison Journal says that Wm. H. Rarey, brother to the famous horse-tamer, who has so astonished the nobility and gentry of England, will attend our State Fair in October, and demonstrate their new method of taming and managing the most vicious horse.

Politics in Pennsylvania.—There is every probability that at the coming October election, Pennsylvania, whose vote made Mr. Buchanan President, will repudiate Sham Democracy and administer a stern rebuke to our Pro-Slavery Administration. A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune prophecies certain defeat to the three Administration candidates in the city of Philadelphia, and thus speaks:

> An artist here, improving on them, is now building a monument for the three members of Congress who have so distinguished themselves by their corrupt subserviency to the lash of the Slave Power. It is to be set up in Independence Square immediately after the October election. That election will be certain death to them, politically, and it is high time their epitaphs were written. It is, moreover, extremely kind that they should be permitted to read them before the places that now know them shall know them no more. Tom Florence is hopelessly doomed. His nomination is a farce, as an Anti-Lecompton Democrat. Dr. Nebinger is also in the field; and the Catholics, who have always went for him blind, have just discovered that he belongs to the secret order of United American Mechanics, and now breathe nothing but vengeance.
> There is no hope for Democracy in this District except by both Florence and Nebinger backing down, and running a new man. Every effort of the Administration has been made openly and secretly, for weeks past, to prevent this very condition of things. The Navy Yard, with all its patronage of work and office, has been prostituted to bolster up Florence. Broadsides were fired into the Opposition from the two new sloops-of-war that Tom had apportioned to this station, but in vain. Mr. Buchanan has made on Florence a break down of the worst kind; and now in retaliation for this defeat, the workmen who refused to sustain him at the primary elections are turned out of employment.—It is the reign of terror revived. Phillips is even worse off; he don't expect to be elected, and desired a re-nomination merely as an easy way of letting him down. Landy completes the trio of gone cases.
> It is in the view of the death and burial of these men that the monument referred to has been constructed. Why should they not be treated with as much consideration as any other condemned one? By over persuasion—though unconscious that it was intended for The Tribune—the artist has permitted me to copy the inscription, and here it is:
> Beneath this Monument > of sympathetic brass, an appreciative Constituency has > caused to be deposited all of the little that > there ever was of
> FLORENCE, PHILLIPS AND LANDY:
> Who, elected as Representatives of the City wherein the > Declaration of Independence of British > bondage was written, agreed upon > and first proclaimed to the > world, deliberately > Misrepresented the people of that City, and > made them apparently the supporters of a > domestic bondage inconceivably > more infamous.
> The Signers of the Declaration pledged their sacred > honor, and preserved it untarnished. The > little which these men ever had was > anything but sacred, and is now > Gone forever.
> Genius, prostituted though it be in seeking to perpetuate the memory of Traitors to Freedom, > has condescended to preserve their features.
> The tablet below contains
> THREE DOUGH FACES.
> So accurately moulded that to all who look upon > them they shall be a hissing and astonishment.
> As their whole career in Congress
> Was a falsehood to their Constituents, so even in the grave
> They continue to Lie.
> THEY DIED OF LECOMPTON.

Another Telegraphic Route Proposed.—A correspondent of the National Intelligencer suggests the practicability of laying a submarine cable between Europe and America by the way of the Azores and Bermudas. The writer says the distance from Bermuda to Fayal is less than from Ireland to Newfoundland. These islands stand invitingly off the coasts of Europe and America. They stand as herculean pillars on which to rest the cable. If a wire was laid between them, shorter ones could be carried to the shores of the Old and New World. One wire between these islands would serve all practical purposes for a long time to come. The route by Fayal would accommodate England with one wire, France with one, Spain and Portugal with one, and Madeira with one. On our side, the Bermuda route route would be convenient for one wire to New England, one for the Middle States and the West, one for the Southern States and California, one for Cuba and Mexico, and one for the West Indies and South America.

An Atrocious Outrage on a Blind Professor.—Professor Whelan, late principal of the Missouri Asylum, in St. Louis, is well and favorably known to our citizens generally, and to those of Philadelphia, Pa., and Nashville, Tenn. He is almost wholly blind, yet has habituated himself to traverse the streets without serious inconvenience. Having resigned the position he had honorably filled at the Asylum, and concluded his business arrangements, he yesterday set about seeking a steamer on which to despatch his effects to Pittsburg, en route for Philadelphia. It is to be regretted that unused to the active world and deprived of sight, the worthy gentleman's habit of self reliance should have led him, alone and on such an errand, to meet the perils of the levee. At about 3 P. M., while passing near the foot of Pine street, he was courteously addressed by a stranger, who, after a slight conversation, offered his arm to conduct him across the street. It was accepted, and on learning that his polite street-friend was named Miller, Mr. W., was further delighted when the agreeable reminiscences of Captain Miller of Nashville, suggested by the name, were intensified by this prompt avowal of Miller, "That Captain Miller is my father!" Mr. W. was captivated, and a long and animated conversation followed, during which the parties walked far, and Mr. W. trusted to his friend, to "keep the run of the streets." At about five o'clock he inquired where they were, and Miller appeared unable to tell. Mr. W. asked a person who was passing, and was told they were on Fifteenth street. He was slightly startled, and his friend proposed to accompany him to the Planters' House, where they would get supper, and meet Capt. Miller. But the friend turned westward, which direction Mr. W. assured him was wrong, and they agreed to wait and take a 'bus down Franklin avenue. In the meantime they entered Carr Place, passed some twenty steps from the gate, and sat down. Presently, Mr. W. found himself caught, gagged, and held fast! He struggled desperately, and on the instant, supposing that—as he still thinks—another person had attacked him, he tried to call on Miller to help him. But he could not speak, and when his exertions to free himself encouraged the hope of success, he was struck very violently upon the forehead and temporarily stunned.—On recovering, he found himself apparently alone, all his pockets but one turned outward, and himself poorer by $250. The money was in bills of many varieties, and the fact of his possessing it, had been drawn from him during the conversational stroll. Twenty dollars was left him, in a vest pocket. This was attributed to the casualty that he had taken a pin-cushion from that pocket in Miller's presence. The villain was probably led to judge that no money was in that pocket. No clue remains by which to identify these infamous scamps, for it is deemed certain there were two or three of them. —Missouri Democrat.

Loss of the New Brunswick.—The Bark New Brunswick, Capt. McTavish, of Chatham, founded off Point Pelee on the night of Thursday, the 26th ult. She was owned by Henry Eberts and freighted with walnut and square timber, neither cargo nor vessel being insured. Out of a crew of nine, five were lost, while the survivors were only saved by a raft constructed out of a boom and gaff, cut loose by the captain with a small pen knife. On this frail support in a heavy sea, paddling with their hands, they were sustained for five hours in their attempt to reach the shore, when they were taken off by a little boat manned by Mr. Robert Shanks and his family. Mr. Shanks and family are entitled to great praise for the promptness, humanity and generosity, exhibited by them towards those whose lives they were instrumental in saving. The names of the saved are Capt. McTavish, Joseph Darce, mate; John Bank, and Duncan McVicar, seamen. The lost were Duncan Turner, James Riddle, baker; Archd. McMidan, a young man named Thomas——, and the cook, Isaac Campbell—the latter of whom, during a fit of delirium, sank from the raft not more than ten minutes before Mr. Shanks came to their aid.—Press & Tribune.

Outagamie County.—Notwithstanding the short crop and poor harvest, our County has raised a handsome surplus of Wheat the present year. The farmers are all busy now getting in a fall crop, and from what we can learn we are inclined to believe that one-half as much more ground will be sown to Wheat this fall than there was in the fall of 1857. Our farmers will not be discouraged by one short crop.—Appleton Crescent.

Shipments from Milwaukee.

It will be seen by reference to our commercial tables that the shipments of Wheat and Flour from this port, thus far the present season foot up by reducing Flour to Wheat, 3,503,366 bushels. By comparison with the shipments to the corresponding date last year, we have the following statement:

Year.	Wheat.	Flour.
1857,	1,446,914	133,843
1858,	2,527,626	195,148
Increase,	1,080,712	61,305

The aggregate increase, is therefore one million four hundred and thirty-six thousand seven hundred and thirty-seven bushels of wheat in favor of this season, and by adding to the wheat the amount of other grains, 587,217 bushels, it will be perceived that the total shipments of grain from Milwaukee this season up to Saturday night are four millions ninety thousand five hundred eighty-three bushels. It is not improbable that these figures will be doubled before the close of navigation.

The Promenade Concert To-Night.

Merrill's American Cornet Band make their first public appeal to our citizens, this evening, and offer a tempting programme. We hope the appeal will not be made in vain. The Members of the Cornet Band have spent a good deal of money and devoted much time, in the effort to perfect themselves. Their progress has been remarkable, and there are now few as good bands in the entire West. Our citizens, who appreciate good music, ought to encourage the efforts of the Cornet Band and attend their Festival, to-night, en masse.

After the Concert, there will be a Dance for such as desire to participate, and palatable Refreshments will be served up by Dickerson & Co.

Wisconsin and Iowa Lands for Sale.

We publish in this morning's issue of the Daily Sentinel, a list of lands, situated in Wisconsin and Iowa, which lands are offered for sale on the most liberal terms. Many of these parcels of land were selected at an early day by the owner himself; some of the lots were entered in 1853 and 1854, and for a large portion of the tracts designated in the advertisement the patents from the U. S. Land Office have long since been received. The titles are direct from the United States, the taxes have been regularly paid, hence the titles are indisputable. Many of these lots are in parts now well settled, and surrounded by cultivated farms, with school houses, mills, and other conveniences, around them. Some of these lands are in the town of Mt. Morris, (Town 19, Range 11,) and are within a dozen miles of Berlin, Marquette County, in one of the finest agricultural regions of Wisconsin, with all the advantages of Railroad facilities, being close to the line of the surveyed route of the Railroad. They are well watered and timbered.

They are bordered in a great many instances by small lakes, fully equal in beauty to the lakes Emily and Maria, and are admirably adapted for farming purposes. Some of the tracts, particularly those in 25, 10, are heavily timbered with pine trees two feet through and upwards, forty feet high, and are lands that will yield from 10 to 12,000 feet of lumber per acre.—Many of the tracts, for instance, those in 23, 6, contain iron ore; and are so marked in the United States Survey, and so proved since.—These latter ones are on the banks of the Wisconsin River, running parallel with the river for three miles in length, and are near Grand Rapids, Wood county, with an abundance of timber in that section of the county for smelting. Many of the lands are near Plover, Portage Co., and some of them in the vicinity of Stevens Point and at Point Basse.

The improved farms alluded to in the advertisement are situated in Dodge and Columbia Counties, are among the choicest and earliest selected farms in those counties, with railroad facilities not surpassed in Wisconsin, some of the farms being but a mile or two miles from depots.

These lands are offered for sale at low rates. The owner will give ample time, from one to ten years, for payment in full. The titles are all perfect, being direct from the government. Application by letter or otherwise made to George Knowles, East Randolph, Columbia County, Wisconsin, will meet with prompt attention.

White resigns. (k)

(a) In this open game this square is not a good post for the Bishop. B. to K. Kt. 5, would have been stronger.

(b) This hasty move was the origin of White's difficulties. He should have castled.

(c) This excellent move puts a stop to White's advance on the queen's side, and drives him to the defence.

(d) Another threatening move, forcing White into an awkward position.

(e) White 13 and 18 moves seem indispensable. It was now necessary to move the K. B. or Black would take it, and on White retaking Q. Kt. with Q. P., Black would take Q. Kt. with Q. R., winning a piece.

(f) This loses another pawn, but like the last five or six moves, was probably the best at White's command. To retreat the Kt. or move Q. R. P. would have been followed by the fatal advance of the Black Queen to K. B. 6.—If 20 Q. to K. 2, Black would play 20 B. to K. B. 6 and with the R. have an irresistible attack.

(g) White might now have recovered one of his pawns as follows:

25 Kt. takes B.	25 Q. takes Kt.
26. Q. to K. B. 3.	26. Q. to K. sq.
27. Q. to Q. B. 5-ch.	27. K. to Q. 2.
28 Q. takes Q. R. P.

But as Black might have then forced an exchange of queens, it was deemed better to forego the advantage.

(h) It was necessary to move this Rook, or it would have been lost in four moves.

(i) B. to Q. B. 3 might have protracted the game.

(k) The Madison players are entitled to the credit of having managed their game with skill and most painstaking watchfulness. Their committee has done the work of analyzing the game thoroughly, and has avoided thereby the commission of any error of importance. White's carelessness, especially in the early part of the game, was the result of total want of participation in the play by most of the members of the Committee, and want of time on the part of the one or two players, who were forced to conduct the game without being able to devote to it the necessary examination. A match by correspondence should be by be conducted by at least three players, and each of them should study carefully every move. It is not too much to say of the Milwaukee club that some of its members have exhibited over the board, better play than in any of the match games undertaken by the club.

Common Council Proceedings.

ADJOURNED MEETING.

The Board of Councillors held an adjourned meeting on Friday evening.

In the absence of the Mayor, President Hadley took the Chair.

After the transaction of the usual preliminary business, a resolution was adopted, accompanying a communication, authorizing the issue of an order to C. F. Austin, Esq., for $223, interest on Comptroller's note, held by the former, for the purchase of the University property, amounting to three thousand and odd dollars.

A communication from the City Clerk, informing the Council that he had learned that a certain lot purchased by the city, for an Engine House, was about being sold on an execution, was referred to the Committee on Fire Department.

The Street Commissioners, to whom had been referred the matter of opening Teutonia street, reported in favor of opening said street, and also reported assessments of benefit and damages thereon. After considerable discussion the report was concurred in. This matter has been before the Council in some shape or other for at least six months, if not a great deal longer. We hope this is the end of it.

The resolutions adopted by the Board of Aldermen, were taken up.

A resolution that the City Engineer define the metes and bounds of Fifth Avenue, in Martineau's addition, so as to conform with the map of the city by Mr. Lapham, and requesting the Street Commissioners to recommend the opening of same when so deeded, was concurred in.

A resolution was also concurred in, authorizing the Street Commissioners to have Fourth Avenue, in the Eighth Ward, planked, and sidewalks of the same planked and gutters curbed.

The President, Dr. Hanson, was in the chair. The meeting was opened by prayer by Dr. Candee.

THE MURDERER JACOBI COMMITTED FOR TRIAL AT PITTSBURGH—ATTEMPT TO LYNCH THE PRISONER—GREAT EXCITEMENT.—Christian Jacobi, the alleged wife-murderer, who was re-arrested through the exertions of Captain Bradley and Marshal Jacob Rehm, last Saturday, has been fully committed to take his trial before the court of Oyer and Terminer, in the city of Pittsburgh, next October. The excitement on his arrival at that city was intense; more than five thousand people having gathered in the depot to await his arrival for the purpose of lynching him, and it was only by a ruse of Rehm's that he was safely lodged in jail. During the scuffle, in which Rehm and his prisoner were both rolled in the ditch and severely trodden on by the crowd, the Marshal lost his carpet bag and had his clothing considerably torn. Mayor Weaver, of Pittsburgh, to whose untiring exertions the arrest is in a measure due, promptly paid Bradley and Rehm's bill of expenses, including all the telegraphing, decoy hire, etc., amounting to some $400.—Chicago Tribune.

MESSAGE FROM THE LORD MAYOR OF DUBLIN TO THE MAYOR OF DETROIT.—Detroit has the honor, next to New York, of being the first city to transmit a message over the Atlantic Telegraph. BOGUS CABLE FOR SALE.—The excitement which the successful laying of the Atlantic Cable has occasioned, has created in New York a new set of impostors—mock sailors, who pretend to belong to the Niagara, and who invade offices, saloons and bar-rooms with grossly bad imitations of the Atlantic Cable, five or six inches in length, which they offer for sale at prices varying from fifty cents to a dollar.

THE START.

On the morning of Saturday, the 17th of July, the Valorous, Gorgon and Niagara, having completed coaling, steamed away from Queenstown for the rendezvous. The Agamemnon, having to wait for Prof. W. Thomson, one of the directors, who took charge of the electrical department on board, did not weigh anchor until 2 o'clock on the following morning.

LACK OF ENTHUSIASM.

As the ships left the harbor there was apparently no notice taken of their departure by those on shore or in the vessels anchored around them; every one seemed to be impressed with the conviction that we were engaged in a hopeless enterprise, and the squadron seemed rather to have slunk away on some discreditable mission than to have sailed for the accomplishment of a grand national scheme.

The weather remained fine during the day, and as the Agamemnon skirted along the wild and rocky shore of the south-west coast of Ireland, those on board had an excellent opportunity of seeing the stupendous rocks which rise from the water in the most grotesque and fantastic shapes. By Monday morning the 16th, we had left the land far behind us, and thence fell into the usual dull monotony of sea life.

THE VOYAGE OUT.

Of the voyage out there is little to be said.—It was not checkered by the excitement of continual storms or the tedium of perpetual calms, but we had a sufficient mixture of both to render our passage to the rendezvous a very ordinary and uninteresting one indeed. For the first week the barometer remained unusually low, and the number of those natural barometers, Mother Carey's chickens, that kept in our wake kept us in continual expectation of heavy weather.—With every little breeze of wind the screw was got up and sail made, so as to husband our coals as much as possible, but it generally soon fell calm and obliged Captain Preedy reluctantly to get up steam again. In consequence of these continued delays and changes from steam to sail, and from sail to steam again, much fuel was expended, and not more than 80 miles of distance made good each day.

BEAUTIFUL SCENES.

On Sunday, the 25th, however, the weather changed, and for several days in succession there was an uninterrupted calm. The moon was just at the full, and for several nights it shone with a brilliancy which turned the smooth sea into one silvery sheet, which brought out the dark hull and white sails of the ship in strong contrast to the sea and sky as the vessel lay all but motionless on the water, the very impersonation of solitude and repose. Indeed, until the rendezvous was gained, we had such a succession of beautiful sunrises, gorgeous sunsets, and tranquil moonlight nights, as would have excited the most enthusiastic admiration of any one but persons situated as we were. But by us such scenes were regarded only as the annoying indications of the calm which delayed our progress and wasted our coals. In spite of the unusual calmness of the weather in general, there were days on which our former unpleasant experiences of the Atlantic were brought forcibly to our recollection—when it blew hard, and the sea ran sufficiently high to reproduce on a minor scale some of the discomforts of which the previous cruise had been so fruitful. These days, however, were the exception, and not the rule, and served to show how much more pleasant was the inconvenient calm than the weather which had previously prevailed.

THE RENDEZVOUS.

By dint, however, of judicious expenditure of fuel, and a liberal use of the cheaper motive power of sail, the rendezvous was reached on the evening of Wednesday, the 18th of July, just 11 days after our departure from Queenstown.—The rest of the squadron were in sight at nightfall, but at such a considerable distance that it was past ten o'clock on the morning of Thursday, the 29th, before the Agamemnon joined them. We were as usual greeted by a perfect storm of questions as to what kept us so much behind our time, and learned that all had come to the conclusion that the ship must have got on shore on leaving Queenstown Harbor. The Niagara, it appeared, had arrived at the rendezvous on Friday night, the 23d, the Valorous on Sunday, the 25th, and the Gorgon on the afternoon of Tuesday, the 27th.

THE SPLICE.

The day was beautifully calm, so no time was to be lost before making the splice; boats were soon lowered from the attendant ships, the two vessels made fast by a hawser, and the Niagara's end of the cable conveyed on board the Agamemnon. About half past 12 o'clock the splice was effectually made, but with materials very different from carefully rounded semicircular boards which had been used to enclose the junction on previous occasions. It consisted merely of two straight boards hauled over the joining, with the iron rod and leaden plummet attached to the centre.

NO SPECTATORS—NO FORMALITY.

In hoisting it out from the side of the ship, however, the leaden sinker broke short off and fell overboard; and there being no more convenient weight at hand, a 32lb. shot was fastened to the splice instead, and the whole apparatus was quickly dropped into the sea without any formality, for those on board had witnessed so many beginnings to the telegraphic line, that it was evident that they had despaired of there ever being an end to it. The stipulated 210 fathoms of cable having been paid out to allow the splice to sink well below the surface, the signal to start was hoisted, the hawser cut loose, and the Niagara and Agamemnon started for the last time for their opposite destinations.

THE RETURN VOYAGE.

For the first three hours the ships proceeded very slowly, paying out a great quantity of slack, but after the expiration of this time the speed of Agamemnon was increased to five knots per hour, the cable going at about six, without indicating more than a few hundred pounds of strain upon the dynamometer.

A WHALE—WHAT CAUSED THE FAILURE OF THE PREVIOUS EXPEDITION?

Shortly after six o'clock a very large whale was seen approaching the starboard bow at great speed, rolling and tossing the sea into a foam all round and for the first time we felt the possibility of the supposition that our second mysterious breakage of the cable might have been caused after all by one of these animals getting foul of it under water. It appeared as if it were making direct for the cable, and great was the relief of all when the ponderous living mass was seen slowly to pass astern, just grazing the cable where it entered the water; but fortunately without doing any mischief.

INJURED CABLE.

All seemed to go well to about eight o'clock; the cable paid out from the hold with an evenness and regularity which showed how perfectly and carefully it had been coiled away; and to guard against accidents which might arise in consequence of the cable having suffered injury during the storm, the indicated strain on the dynamometer was never allowed to go beyond 1700 lbs., or less than one quarter what the cable is estimated to bear,—and thus far, everything looks promising of success. But in such a hazardous work, no one knows what a few minutes may bring forth, for soon after 8, an injured portion of the cable was discovered about a mile or two from the portion paying out; not a moment was lost by Mr. Canning, the engineer on duty, in setting men to work to cobble up the injury as well as time would permit, for the cable was going out at such a rate that the damaged portion would be paid overboard in less than 20 minutes, and former experience had shown us that to check either the speed of the ship or the cable would, in all probability, be attended by the most fatal results.

THE ELECTRICAL CONTINUITY CEASES.

Just before lapping was finished, Professor Thompson reported that the electrical continuity of the wire ceased, but that the insulation was perfect; attention was naturally directed to the injured piece as the probable source of the stoppage, and not a moment was lost in cutting the cable at the point, with the intention of making a perfect splice.

CONSTERNATION—THE DIFFICULTY UNDER WATER.

To the consternation of all, the electrical test showed the fault to be overboard, and in all probability 50 miles from the ship. Not a second was to be lost, for it was evident that the cut portion must be paid overboard in a few minutes, and in the meantime the tedious and difficult task of making a splice had to be performed.

THE SHIP STOPPED.

The ship was immediately stopped, and no more cable was paid out than was absolutely necessary to prevent it breaking. As the stern of the ship was lifted by the waves a scene of intense excitement followed. It seemed impossible even by using the greatest possible speed, and paying out the least possible amount of cable, that the juncture could be finished before the part was taken out of the hands of the workmen.

INTENSE EXCITEMENT—EXTRAORDINARY SCENE.

The main hold presented an extraordinary scene; nearly all the officers of the ship and those connected with the expedition stood in groups about the coil, watching with intense anxiety the cable as it slowly unwound itself nearer and nearer the joint, while the workmen, directed by Mr. Canning, under whose superintendence the cable was originally manufactured, worked at the splice as only men could work who felt that the life and death of the expedition depended upon their rapidity.

THE CABLE STOPPED.

But all their speed was to no purpose, as the cable was unwinding within a hundred fathoms, and, as a last and desperate resource, the cable was stopped altogether, and for a few moments the ship hung on by the end. Fortunately, however, it was only for a few minutes, as the strain was continually rising above two tons, and it would not hold on much longer; when the splice was finished the signal was made to loose the stopper, and it passed overboard safely enough.

THE CABLE HOPELESS—HOPE EXTINGUISHED.

When the excitement consequent upon having so narrowly saved the cable had passed away, we awoke to the consciousness that the case was still as hopeless as ever, for the electrical continuity was still entirely wanting. Preparations were consequently made to pay out as little rope as possible, and to hold on for six hours, in the hopes that the fault, whatever it might be, might mend itself before cutting the cable and turning to the rendezvous to make another splice. The magnetic needles on the receiving instruments were watched closely for the returning signals; when in a few minutes the last hope was extinguished by their suddenly indicating dead earth, which tended to show that the cable had broken from the Niagara, or that the insulation had been completely destroyed.

ALL'S WELL AGAIN—MORE BAD CABLE.

In three minutes, however, every one was agreeably surprised by the intelligence that the stoppage had disappeared, and that the signals had again appeared at their regular intervals from the Niagara. It is needless to say what a load of anxiety this news removed from the minds of every one, but the general confidence in the ultimate success of the operations was much shaken by the occurrence, for all felt that every minute a similar accident might occur.—For some time the paying out continued as usual, but towards the morning another damaged place was discovered in the cable; there was, fortunately, however, time to repair it in the hold without in any way interfering with the operations, beyond for a time slightly reducing the speed of the ship.

During the morning of Friday, the 30th, everything went well; the ship had been kept at the speed of about five knots, the cable going out about six, the average angle with the horizon at which it left the ship being about 15 deg., while the indicated strain upon the dynamometer seldom showed more than 1,500lb. to 1,700lb. Observations made at noon showed that we had made good 90 miles from the starting point since the previous day, with an expenditure, including the loss in lowering the splice and during the subsequent stoppages, of 135 miles of cable. During the latter portion of the day the barometer fell considerably, and towards the evening it blew almost a gale of wind from the eastward, dead ahead of our course.

HEAD WINDS—THE NIAGARA.

As the breeze freshened the speed of the engines was gradually increased, but the wind more than increased in proportion, so that before the sun went down the Agamemnon was going full steam against the wind, only making a speed of about four knots an hour. During the evening the topmasts were lowered, and spars, yards, sails, and, indeed, everything aloft that could offer resistance to the wind, was sent down on deck; but still the ship made but little way, chiefly in consequence of a heavy sea, though the enormous quantity of fuel consumed showed us that if the wind lasted we should be reduced to burning masts, spars, and even the decks, to bring the ship into Valentia. It seemed our particular ill-fortune to meet with head winds whichever way the ship's head was turned. On our journey out we had been delayed and obliged to consume an undue proportion of coal for want of an easterly wind, and now all our fuel was wanted because of one. However, during the next day the wind gradually went round to the southwest, which, though it raised a very heavy sea, allowed us to husband our small remaining store of fuel.

At noon on Saturday, the 31st of July, observations showed us to be in latitude 52 deg. 23 N., and longitude 26 deg. 44 W., having made good 120 miles since noon of the previous day, with a loss of about 27 per cent. of cable. The Niagara, as far as could be judged from the amount of cable she paid out, which, by a previous arrangement, was signalled every ten miles, kept pace with us within one or two miles the whole distance across.

During the afternoon of Saturday, the wind again freshened up, and before nightfall it again blew almost a gale of wind, and a tremendous sea ran before it from the South-West, which made the Agamemnon pitch to such extent that it was thought impossible the cable could hold on through the night—indeed, had it not been for the constant care and watchfulness exercised by Mr. Bright and the two energetic engineers, Messrs Canning and Clifford, who acted with him, it could not have been done at all. Men were kept at the wheels of the machine to prevent their stopping, as the stern of the ship rose and fell with the sea, for had they not done so the cable must undoubtedly have parted. During Sunday the sea and wind increased, and before the evening it blew a smart gale.

BAD WEATHER—FEAR OF DISASTER—INTENSE ANXIETY.

Now, indeed, were the energy and activity of all engaged in the operation tasked to the utmost. Mr. Hoar and Mr. Moore, the two engineers who had charge of the relieving wheels of the dynamometer, had to keep watch and watch alternately every four hours, and while on duty durst not let their attention be removed from their occupation for one moment, for on their releasing the breaks every time the stern of the ship fell into the trough of the sea entirely depended the safety of the cable, and the result shows how ably they discharged their duty.—Throughout the night there were few who had the least expectation of the cable holding on till morning, and many remained awake listening for the sound which all most dreaded to hear—viz: the gun which should announce the failure of all our hopes. But still the cable, which, in comparison with the ship from which it was paid out, and the gigantic waves among which it was delivered, was but a mere thread, continued to hold on, only leaving a silvery phosphorus line upon the stupendous seas, as they rolled on towards the ship.

With Sunday morning came no improvement in the weather; still the sky remained black and stormy to windward, and the constant violent squalls of wind and rain which prevailed during the whole day served to keep up, if not to augment the height of the waves. But the cable had gone through so much during the night that our confidence in its continuing to hold was much restored. At noon observations showed us to be in lat. 52° 26' N. and long. 23° 16' W., having made good 130 miles from noon of the previous day, and about 350 miles from our starting point in mid ocean.

THINGS MORE PROMISING.

We had passed by the deepest sounding of 2,400 fathoms and over more than half of the deep water generally, while the amount of cable still remaining in the ship was more than sufficient to carry us to the Irish coast, even supposing the continuance of the bad weather should oblige us to pay out the same amount of slack cable we had hitherto been wasting. Thus far things looked very promising for our ultimate success. But the former experience showed us only too plainly that we could never suppose that some accident might not arise until the ends had been fairly landed on the opposite shores.

During Sunday night and Monday morning the weather continued as boisterous as ever, and it was only by the most indefatigable exertions of the engineer upon duty that the wheels could be prevented from stopping altogether as the vessel rose and fell with the sea, and once or twice they did come completely to a stand-still in spite of all that could be done to keep them moving, but fortunately they were again set in motion before the ship was thrown up by the succeeding wave. No strain could be placed upon the cable, of course, and though the dynamometer occasionally registered 1,700 lb. as the ship lifted, it was oftener below 1,000, and was frequently nothing, the cable running out as fast as its own weight and the speed of the ship could draw it. But even with all these forces acting unresistedly upon it, the cable never paid itself out at a greater speed than eight knots an hour at the time the ship was going at the rate of six knots and a half. Subsequently, however, when the speed of the ship even exceeded six knots and a half, the cable never ran out so quick.—The average speed maintained by the ship up to this time, and, indeed, for the whole voyage, was about five knots and a half, the cable, with occasional exceptions, running about 30 per cent. faster.

VOYAGE HALF ACCOMPLISHED.

At noon on Monday, August the 2nd, observations showed us to be in lat. 52 deg. 35m N., long. 19 deg. 48m W., having made good 127 miles since noon of the previous day, and completed more than half the way to our ultimate destination.

FIRST SAIL—AN AMERICAN SCHR. BOUND TO SEE THE SIGHT—STUPIDITY AND CARELESSNESS.

During the afternoon an American three masted schooner, which afterwards proved to be the Chieftain, was seen standing from the eastward towards us. No notice was taken of her at first, but when she was within about half a mile of the Agamemnon she altered her course and bore right down across her bows. A collision, which might prove fatal to the cable now seemed inevitable, or could only be avoided by the equally hazardous expedient of altering the Agamemnon's course. The Valorous steamed ahead, and fired a gun for her to heave too, which, as she did not take much notice of, was quickly followed by another from the bows of the A., and a second and third from the Valorous; but still the vessel hung on her course, and as the only resource left to avoid a collision, the course of the Agamemnon was altered just in time to pass within a few yards of her. It was evident that our proceedings were the source of the greatest possible astonishment to them, for all her crew crowded upon her deck and rigging. At length they evidently discovered who we were and what we were doing, for the crew manned the rigging, and dipping the ensign several times they gave us three hearty cheers.—Though the Agamemnon was obliged to acknowledge these congratulations in due form, the feelings of annoyance with which we regarded the vessel which, either by the stupidity or carelessness of those on board, was so near adding a fatal and unexpected mishap to the long chapter of accidents which had already been encountered, may easily be imagined.

THE EFFECT OF THE GUNS.

To those below, who, of course, did not see ship approaching, the sound of the first gun came like a thunderbolt, for all took it as the signal of the breaking of the cable. The dinner tables were deserted in a moment, and a general rush made to the hatches to the deck, but before reaching it their fears were quickly banished by the report of the succeeding gun, which all knew well could only be caused by a ship in our way or a man overboard.

THE ELECTRICAL CURRENT.

Throughout the greater portion of Monday morning the electrical signals from the Niagara had been getting gradually weaker until they ceased altogether for nearly three quarters of an hour. Our uneasiness, however, was in some degree lessened by the fact that the stoppage appeared to be want of continuity, and not any defect in insulation, and there was constantly every reason to suppose that it might arise from faulty connection on board the Niagara. Accordingly Professor Thompson sent a message to the effect that the signals were too weak to be read, and as if they had been awaiting such a signal to increase their battery power, the deflections immediately returned even stronger than they had ever been before. Towards the evening, however, they again declined in force for a short time. With the exception of these little stoppages the electrical condition of the submerged wire seemed to be much improved. It was evident that the low temperature of the water at the immense depth improved considerably the insulating properties of the gutta percha, while the enormous pressure to which it must have been subjected probably tended to consolidate its texture and to fill up any air bubbles or slight faults in manufacture which may have existed.

ANOTHER STUPID AMERICAN VESSEL.

The weather during Monday night moderated a little, but still there was a very heavy sea on, which endangered the wire every second minute. About 3 o'clock on Tuesday morning all on board were startled from their beds by the loud booming of a gun. Every one, without waiting for the performance of the most particular toilet, rushed on deck to ascertain the cause of the disturbance. Contrary to all expectation the cable was safe, but just in the grey light could be seen the Valorous rounded to in the most warlike attitude, firing gun after gun in quick succession towards a large American bark, which, quite unconscious of our proceeding was standing right across our stern. Such loud and repeated remonstrances from a large steam frigate were not to be despised, and evidently without knowing the why or wherefore, she threw her sails aback and remained hove to. Whether those on board considered that we were engaged in some Fillibustering expedition, or regarded our proceeding as another British outrage on the American flag, it is impossible to say, but certain it is that, apparently in great trepidation, she remained hove to until we had lost sight of her in the distance.

SHOAL WATER REACHED.

Tuesday was a much finer day than any we had experienced for nearly a week, but still there was a considerable sea running, and our dangers were far from passed; yet the hope of our ultimate success ran high. We had accomplished nearly the whole of the deep sea portion of the route in safety, and that, too, under the most unfavorable circumstances possible, therefore there was every reason to believe that unless some unforeseen accident should occur, we should accomplish the remainder. Observations at noon placed us in lat. 51 20 N., long. 16 40 W., having run 134 miles since the previous day. About 5 o'clock in the evening the steep submarine mountain, which divides the telegraph plateau from the Irish coast, was reached, and the effect of the sudden shallowing of the water had a very marked effect upon the cable, causing the strain on the speed of it to lessen every minute. A great deal of slack was paid out to allow for any inequalities which might exist, though undiscovered by the sounding line—About 10 o'clock the shoal water of 250 fathoms was reached—the only remaining anxiety now was the changing from the upper main coil to that upon the upper deck, and this most difficult and dangerous operation was successfully performed between 3 and 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning.

Wednesday was a beautifully calm day; indeed it was the first on which any one would have thought of making a splice since the day we started from the rendezvous. We therefore, congratulated ourselves of having saved a week by commencing operations on the Thursday previous. At noon we were in lat. 52 11, long. 12 40 2 W., 89 miles distance from the telegraphic station at Valentia. The water was shallow, so that there was no difficulty in paying out the wire almost without any loss by slack, and all looked upon the undertaking as virtually accomplished. At about one o'clock in the evening the second change from the upper-deck coil to that upon the orlop-deck was safely effected, and shortly after the vessels exchanged singles that they were in 200 fathoms of water. As the night advanced the speed of the ship reduced, as it was known that we were only a short distance from the land, and there would be no advantage in making it before day light in the morning. About twelve o'clock, however, the Skelligs Light was in the distance, and the Valorous steamed on ahead to lead us into the coast, firing rockets at intervals to direct us, which were answered by us from the Agamemnon, though, according to Mr. Moriarty, the master's, wish, the ship, disregarding the Valorous, kept her own course, which proved to be the right one in the end.

LAND AHEAD.

By daylight on the morning of Thursday the bold and rocky mountains which entirely surround the wild and picturesque neighborhood of Valentia rose right before us at a few miles distance. Never, probably, was the sight of land more welcome; it brought to successful termination one of the greatest, but at the same time, most difficult schemes which was ever undertaken. Had it been the dullest and most melancholy swamp on the face of the earth that lay before us we should have found it a pleasant prospect; but, as the sun rose from the estuary of Dingle Bay, tinging with a deep soft purple the lofty summits of the steep mountains which surround its shores, and illuminating the masses of morning vapor, which hung upon them, it was a scene which might vie in beauty with anything that could be produced by the most florid imagination of an artist. No one on shore was apparently conscious of our approach, so the Valorous steamed ahead to the mouth of the harbor and fired a gun. Both ships made straight for Dowlas Bay, and about six o'clock came to anchor at the side of Beginish Island, opposite to Valentia.

ENTHUSIASM ON SHORE.

As soon as the inhabitants became aware of our approach, there was a general desertion of the place, and hundreds of boats crowded round us, their passengers in the greatest state of excitement to hear all about our voyage. The Knight of Kerry was absent in Dingle, but a messenger was despatched for him, and he soon arrived in Her Majesty's gunboat Shamrock.

THE NIAGARA SIGNALLED.

Soon after our arrival, a signal was received from the Niagara that they were proceeding to land—having paid out 1,000 nautical miles of cable, while the Agamemnon accomplished her portion of the distance with an expenditure of 1,020 miles,—making the total length of wire submerged, 2,050 geographical miles.

LANDING THE SHORE END.

Immediately after the ships had cast anchor the paddlebox boats of the Valorous were got ready, and two miles of cable coiled away in them, for the purpose of landing the end; but it was late in the afternoon before the procession of boats left the ship, under a salute of three rounds of small arms from the detachment of Marines on board the Agamemnon, under the command of Lieutenant Morris. The progress of the end to the shore was very slow, in consequence of the very stiff wind which blew at the time, but at about three o'clock the end was safely brought on shore at Knightstown, Valentia, by Mr. Bright and Mr. Canning, the chief and second engineers, to whose exertions the success of the undertaking is attributable, and the Knight of Kerry.

FIRST MESSAGE THROUGH THE ENTIRE LENGTH.

The end was immediately laid in the trench which had been dug to receive it, while a Royal salute, making the neighboring rocks and mountains reverberate, announced that the communication between the Old and New World had been completed. The end was immediately taken into the electrical room by Mr. Whitehouse, and attached to a galvanometer, and the first message was received through the entire length.

Official Account of the Capture of a Slaver by the United States Brig Dolphin.

The Secretary of the Navy has received the following despatch from Lieut. Maffit, confirming the account already given of his capture of a slaver off the coast of Cuba:

UNITED STATES BRIG DOLPHIN,
At sea, lat. 23° 50', long. 80° 42'
Aug. 21, 1858.

SIR: I have the honor to inform the Department that, after a long chase, I overhauled and captured, at 6 o'clock this evening a slaver, surrendering under American colors. She has on board over 300 slaves, and when I first made her out, was standing for Key Verde, with the expectation of landing her cargo this evening.—Her officers and crew consist of eighteen, several of whom are Americans. One possessed an American protection.

I have put the prize under the command of Lieut J. M. Bradford, with Lieut. C. C. Carpenter, ten seamen, and six marines, with orders to proceed at once to Charleston, S. C., and act in the premises, as the case may require.

I am credibly informed that several American vessels are expected on the North of Cuba, about the 1st of October.

Being short of officers and men, and the vessel requiring some overhauling, I shall sail at once for Key West, there to await the instructions of the Department.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. N. MAFFIT, Lieut. Com'd'g.

The Hon. Isaac Toucey, Secretary of the Navy

Lieut. Bradford, in writing to the Department from Charleston, says that portion of his orders "requiring the prisoners to be put in irons, would, if executed, have made our voyage to this place impracticable: for the slaves, as soon as they found that they had new masters, destroyed large quantities of water and provisions for the sake of obtaining a small quantity of each for their own use. I restored their former masters, and they had to resort to the fiercest cruelty before they could break up these practices of the slaves."

Lieut. Bradford further states that twelve of the slaves have died since their capture.

In his orders to Lieut. Bradford, Lieut. Maffit directed all the prisoners (the officers and crew of the slaver) to be placed in irons, under double sentinels well armed. He was to proceed to Charleston and consult an attorney-at-law in reference to the best course to pursue. He was also to call upon the Mayor of the city and request him to procure quarters for the slaves, that they might be immediately landed from the vessel.

By the act of May 10, 1800, the owners of vessels fitting out for or engaging in the slave trade, forfeit their property and incur a fine of double the amount. Under the act of May 15, 1820, the trade became piracy, and American citizens serving on board of American or foreign vessels engaged in the trade, incur the penalty of death. In making the prize the officers and crew of the Dolphin have had a stroke of good fortune. The law not only gives them one half of the value of the vessel, but also $25 a head prize money. They will thus be entitled to between eight and nine thousand dollars, to be divided among the officers and crew. The existing law authorizes the President to send the captured negroes back to Africa at the expense of the United States. We believe this is the first case of a captured slaver with negroes on board being brought into our ports.

British Crop Prospects---The Corn Trade.

Another week's fine weather has enabled farmers to secure most of their wheat in excellent condition. The diversity, however, of the yield and quality is as remarkable as the season. It appears that the weight of the white wheat, where it was blighted, does not exceed 47 pounds per bushel, and is only fit for chicken food; while the strong lands, in favored localities, produce samples weighing 65 pounds per bushel. Whatever the average may reach, it must, therefore, be much below last year. Red descriptions are far more equal, and have given a fair result in the very same field where white has almost entirely failed. A lesson, therefore, will be given to growers as to the best dependence. It is singular that the yield presents the same inequality in France; and we fear we may calculate that other countries will not fare much better.

Harvest work having been general, the markets have been thin, and millers have had an opportunity to buy even old samples on rather more favorable terms. At the same time the greater plenty of the new, in consequence of the relatively high rates that were paid for the first samples, has brought it to a more parity with old. The weather has thus far been propitious, and the importance of this fact can hardly be over-estimated, when the rate of consumption is considered, through the increase of population. America shows more tone, in consequence of unfavorable accounts in many States; but France, and the near countries of the continent, exhibit some re-action, especially Belgium, where most excitement obtained. Less favorable accounts of the products in Russia have been reported; and it is certain that in Silesia there have been desolating floods. So that, as a whole, this country, though somewhat deficient, stands foremost—especially Scotland and Ireland, where more humid climates have lessened the effect of drought. Potatoes continue most promising.—Mark Lane Express, Aug. 18.

Rough Discipline for Free Lovers.

A scene of peculiar richness occurred at the Cambridge Depot, on the Central Ohio Railroad. One Martin Robbin, of that vicinity, has lived for a long time in the enjoyment of domestic peace and tranquillity, and would have continued to so live had not the wife of his bosom imbibed certain free love notions not exactly in accordance with the said Robbin's personal feelings. Mrs. Robbin found a new "affinity" in the person of a neighbor; and the two became openly and shamefully intimate. They saw that the neighborhood was getting too hot for them, and the neighbor, being a man of means, proceeded to convert his effects into the ready, preparatory to decamping with his new "attraction." The neighbor's wife detected her husband in this attempt to leave her penniless, and so made the fact known to some of her friends. The friends assembled, kidnapped the guilty free l vers, tied them on horseback, took them to the depot, and requested them to leave on the train there standing, or be immediately subject to a cheap though convenient mode of conveyance, vulgarly known as riding on a fence rail. The free lovers, preferring to take the railroad, did so, and departed amid the shouts of the people, and have not been seen since. They have doubtless gone to Berlin Heights, and are now receiving consoling sympathy from Mrs. Cora Barry and the Age of Freedom newspaper.

INTELLIGENCE FROM EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.—We have been favored with the subjoined extract of a letter from ex-President Pierce, received in this city yesterday morning by a friend to this distinguished gentleman. It is dated Aug. 10, at Hotel Byron, near Villeneuve, Switzerland:

"You will be gratified to learn that that Mrs. Pierce's health has improved decidedly since we left the United States. Nothing could have been more agreeable than our six months in Madeira. The climate in winter, is, I believe, unrivalled—the atmosphere at once bland and bracing, and the scenery extremely grand and beautiful. That we were especially refreshed by the complete repose which it was our privelege there to enjoy, you will readily understand.—We left Funchal on the 12th of June, but lingered by the way, visiting Lisbon, Cadiz, Seville, Gibraltar, Marseilles, Lyons, and Geneva, and arrived here only a week ago. With constant care to avoid over-exertion and exposure, Mrs. P. has been able to enjoy a good deal, and now we find this place of rest quite charming. The hotel, which is at the northern extremity of Leman, is spacious, clean and airy, and commands magnificent views of the Lake and mountains. The castle of Chillon is close by—Clarens, sweet Clarens' within the range of a pleasant walk; Vevay, Lausane, Bex, &c., in the neighborhood. We may remain here during the remainder of August, and then perhaps proceed to Interlaken by the way of Berne. If the weather is favorable we may cross the Simplon and Spulgen, and pass into Italy in September. Wash. Union.

DONATI'S COMET.—Mr. Editor:—Donati's Comet was seen with the naked eye about eight o'clock last evening. It is near the North-West horizon, and appears as a star of the second or third magnitude.—Boston Traveller.

AN AMERICAN INVOLVED IN THE FENE AFFAIR—A Correspondent of a German paper, writing from Baden under date of August 4, says that a Mr. N., "a wealthy American," at present sojourning in Baden, has been, like M. de Pene called to account by French sub-lieutenants.—It having transpired that Mr. N. was the author of an article in an American journal, reflecting severely upon the character of the French sub-lieutenants, several of the aggrieved party immediately sought him out and demanded satisfaction for the insult. The American promptly accepted the challenge, and at noon to-day the parties repaired to the adjacent frontier, where the American and one of the lieutenants were to settle the difficulty according to the rules of the "code." After the first fire, in which neither party was wounded, the American's second, an Austrian ex-officer, intimated to his principal that, as he was in fact the aggressor, and had satisfied the demands of honor, he should now make the amende honorable. With this request the American complied, and thus the affair terminated without bloodshed.

PERRY'S FLAG SHIP.—The Erie Daily Bulletin, of last evening says, that the remains of the Flag Ship Lawrence, of Perry's Fleet, are being raised by Capt. Van Norman, with his wrecking machinery, and a portion of the hull will be taken to the celebration at Put-in-Bay. Those who desire to procure a memento of the victory achieved by the gallant Perry and his brave tars can be accommodated.

The editor of the Bulletin visited the wreck and witnessed the operations of the workmen. A large portion of the hull has been taken up.—The timber is in good condition, notwithstanding the fact that it has lain in the water for a long series of years. Some of the planks and heavy timbers bear the marks of cannon balls and are considerably shattered. Capt Dobbins was there and brought away the materials to make a chair. The heavy portion will be made of oak plank, and the seat from a board which was taken from the cabin. The chair will be taken to Put-in-Bay for the occupancy of the President at the celebration, and after the adjournment it will be sold to the highest bidder, the proceeds to be donated to the Perry Monument Fund.—Cleveland Herald, Sept. 1.

MORPHY AND HIS ENGLISH COMPETITORS.—Morphy is being put to his trumps by the chess players in England. He is ahead yet, but the English will not concede him superiority till he has fairly won it. The London Sunday Times says:

"That he is one of the best chess players is an unquestionable fact; whether he is the best still remains undecided. We look to his pending match with Mr. Lowenthal to settle the matter, and still more do we look to the future engagement with a more powerful combatant. The match with Mr. Staunton will, unless we are mistaken, be Mr. Morphy's greatest undertaking, and place the distinguished American in his right position. Mr. Morphy's brilliancy, learning and capability of improvement will then meet with a worthy opposition in depth, experience and indomitable energy.

G. SIMMONDS,
SOLE PROPRIETOR AND MANUFACTURER OF PURE OHIO
Catawba Brandy.
THIS brandy has been manufactured for several years from the pure juice of the Catawba Grape, thus affording additional evidence of the progress of American enterprise and industry, and of our ability to produce articles at home, equal to those made by any other nation.
The Ohio Catawba Brandy, not only equals but excels the best Imported Brandies in purity and flavor. It is in fact the best Brandy known. This statement is fully corroborated by the certificates of our most distinguished analytical chemists.
The want of pure brandy has long been felt in this country, and the introduction of an article of such quality as to supersede the sale and use of those vile compounds hitherto sold under the name of Brandy, can only be regarded a great public good. The Catawba Brandy possesses all the good qualities claimed for the best imported liquors, and is of perfect purity, and superior flavor, and a sovereign and sure remedy for Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Cramp, Colic, Languor, Low Spirits, General Debility, &c.
NO FAMILY SHOULD BE WITHOUT IT.
RETAIL PRICE $1,25 PER BOTTLE.
Recommended by the physicians and druggists of the United States.

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR!
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
COMPOUNDED ENTIRELY FROM GUMS,
IS one of the best purgative and Liver medicines now before the public, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it; and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body; and when it performs its functions well the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence of one organ—the LIVER—having ceased to do its duty. For the diseases of that organ one of the proprietors has made it his study, in a practice of more than twenty years, to find some remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, PURIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease, effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, AND WHAT IS BETTER, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

Only one dose taken before retiring prevents NIGHTMARE.

Only one dose taken at night, loosens the bowels gently, and cures COSTIVENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

☞ One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the disease, and makes a perfect cure.

Since its first discovery, I have from time to time added various other herbs to it; of one of them, Hippocrates, the Father of Medicine, says: "It is an herb of Jupiter, and in the sign Leo."
"It openeth obstructions of the liver, gall and spleen; it is an especial friend to the liver, worth all other herbs put together; cooling it when too hot, and warming it when too cold.
"It creates an apetite, cureth all gone and sinking feelings in the pit of the stomach, easeth all pains and stitches in the side.
"It cureth the jaundice by opening the gall, and restoreth the native color of the blood.
"It expels all raw, viscous and slimy humors out of the body; it cleanseth all inward ulcers and congealed blood from the kidneys.
"By opening obstructions of the spleen, it purgeth all burnt choler and melancholy vapors which riseth to the head and brain, causing distressing headache, fearful foreboding of trouble, trembling of the heart, fainting and swooning.
"The herb boiled in wine is particularly good to revive the drooping spirit of the aged and whoever has a lingering sickness after a fever, nothing restoreth him to health so quick as drinking the juice of this herb.
"The seed boiled in water cureth the most offensive breath, and, drank at bedtime, preventeth what is commonly called nightmare, and all melancholy dreams, a disease bilious people are liable to."
The Father of Medicine says of another herb in this composition, that "it is an herb of the Sun, and in the sign Leo.
"The sun is the source of all life, and ruleth the heart; and this herb is the best cordial, the greatest strengthener of the heart of any that grows; it comforteth the heart, cureth all palpitation thereof; taketh away trembling, fainting and smothering of it; yet it must be taken carefully, or severe gripings will ensue, which must be corrected with fennel seed or ginger.
"So much for this herb, between which and the adder there is the utmost antipathy; so much so that the adder will not touch him that has the herb about him."
No change of diet every necessary—eat the best you can get and enough of it.
DIRECTIONS. [illegible] over ten years desert spoonful—Children [illegible] years, tea spoonful. As no directions can be applicable to all constitutions, take sufficient to operate on the bowels twice a day.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce the best, most perfect purgative which is known to man. Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take but powerful to cure. Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel the disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distempers, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action, and impart healthy tone with strength to their whole system. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill.—While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow-men.
The Agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of numerous complaints.
Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
Saturday Evening, Sept. 4, 1858.

The produce market has been rather quiet during the past week, but in other branches of business there has been quite a perceptible improvement. Our merchants are receiving their Fall goods in considerable quantities, and most of them find their hands full in supplying their country customers. We are glad to notice, by our exchanges, that the same improvement is taking place elsewhere, and business throughout the country is reviving with such rapidity as almost to warrant the belief that before the close of the year we will have a full return of the prosperity of past times. The Courier & Enquirer says that there is an obvious improvement in commercial affairs, and decided indications of a favorable re-action in the manufacturing interests of New York as well as the interior. The Hartford Times is jubilant in hopes of being speedily able to bid good bye to the "hard times." It says:

> "A majority of our manufactories and machine shops begin to show evidence of a renewal of business. The ring of the hammer, and the busy hum of the machinery is increasing everywhere around us.
> The dark cloud which has hung over us for so long a time begins to break away, and how bright is the first glimmer of light which greets us. The merchant and the mechanic—all must feel the effect of the new impulse to business. Let every hand and every mind be busy, and then take another view of our smiling homes, they will say in a more eloquent language than we—'Good-bye, hard times.'"

Not the least important of the agencies at work in speeding on the revival, very appropriately remarks a cotemporary, is the Atlantic Telegraph. The New York Press are loudly proclaiming its buoyant, inspiriting effect upon the minds of business men, and, of course, upon the trade, which only needs confidence and energy, to be restored to its wonted activity. The practical influence of the Telegraph upon commerce and enterprise, is already very strikingly shown by the revolutionizing effect of the first message which announced the new order of things established in China. Ship owners and merchants are already turning their eyes in that direction with a view to sending thither valuable cargoes of merchandise and opening a rich and profitable trade with the heretofore secluded Empire.

Everywhere throughout the country the tone of the Press indicates a renewed activity in every department of trade, and we may reasonably look to the future with buoyant hopes of prosperity. The produce market here continues rather unsettled, and the business for the week is considerably below what might have been expected. Produce, though coming forward more freely than a week or two ago, is evidently being held back by parties in the country in expectation of very high prices. We have frequently expressed our doubts as to whether these expectations would be realized, and the present aspects of commercial affairs seems to corroborate these views.—The only cause which has acted as a stimulant to the western markets this season, is the undeniable fact that the grain crops have fallen far short of last year's yield. We cannot really say that the prices of the past week in our market are not warranted; yet they are such as to leave no margin whatever for shipment to the east. The facts which operate upon our market appear thus far to have had little or no effect upon eastern markets. One of the causes which may influence these markets, is the fact that the potato crop is very abundant in Ireland this year, and hence the demand from this quarter must be considerably decreased in comparison with past years; moreover the crops throughout the continent of Europe at least, it is believed, will yield very largely. These facts, it is likely, influence the sea-board markets of this country more, or full as much as the crop failure in the west here. We repeat what we have said before, and that is, taking all things into consideration, we can discover nothing to warrant the expectations of exorbitant prices for breadstuffs this Fall. There is little doubt, however, but that all the products of the farm will bring fair, though not extraordinary prices during the balance of the season. Wheat has fluctuated somewhat during the week, advancing a little and declining a little, and being now at about the same figures as at the date of our last review. Flour has been quiet without material change. Oats are dull and somewhat lower. Corn rather heavy, and barley and rye buoyant and advancing. Railroad receipts are increasing slowly, but shipments are comparatively light. The weather during the week has been favorable for the season, though we have heard of the appearance of frost in the western part of the State.

We append our usual tables, market reports, and money article:—

MONEY MARKET.

BANKING AND EXCHANGE OFFICE OF BRIDGE BROTHERS,
No. 166 EAST WATER ST., MIL., Sept. 4, '58.

There has been little change in money or mercantile affairs during the last week, though our streets show some improvement in business generally. Wheat continues to arrive, and rules at from 90c to 1 per bushel. Money is called on long time, on real estate, but at present borrowers are not well supplied with collaterals, and holders are afraid of our financial integrity, and legislative enactments. Many of the Banks of the State have made arrangements to redeem their mutilated notes at various agencies either here or at Madison, but as yet no special agents are appointed to protect the general circulation, as was demanded by the Bank Committee.

Exchange is not much in demand, and prices are firm. We quote as before:

Exchange on N. Y., selling, ... 1 ₩ cent premium.
Gold, Selling, ... 1½ ₩ cent do

Land warrants are very dull. We, however, give our former prices—selling

PUBLIC PRINTING.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the Secretary of State, in Madison, up to the twenty-third day of September next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, for doing for the State of Wisconsin, at the seat of government, all Printing and binding of every kind and description, for which the State may be liable to pay, contemplated in chapter 114 of the General Laws of 1858, entitled "An Act relating to Printing, approved May 17th, 1858." Such printing to be provided for in one contract, to continue for two or four years from the first day of January next, as the Board of Commissioners may direct at any time before such contract is entered into, and to be divided into three classes, as follows:

1st. To comprise all printing incident to the business of the two Houses of the Legislature while in session.

2d. To comprise the journals and documents of the two Houses, and all general and local laws passed by the Legislature.

3d. The printing of the several State departments, including all blanks, blank books used in the several branches thereof of all kinds and descriptions whatsoever; to include such blanks as have heretofore been lithographed or engraved, used in the several departments.

No bid will be considered unless accompanied by a guarantee of twenty thousand dollars that the bidder if successful, will execute to the State a bond as contemplated in said act. Specifications as to what shall constitute a printing bid, will be subject to examination at the office of the Secretary of State on and after the 23d day of August. Such specifications together with the proposal of the successful bidder to be attached to and form a portion of the contract at the time of consummating the same.

A basis will be adopted by the Commissioners, to be in readiness at the hour of opening the bids, upon which basis each of the bids will be computed, but said basis will form no part of the contract, and will in no manner be binding upon the State as to the quantity of the work required.

Bidders are required to furnish specimens of each class of all classes of work bid for. Such specimens as are deposited by the successful bidder shall be kept by the Secretary of State, as a standard criterion for all work provided for in such contract, and shall be the guide for auditing all accounts under the same. Should any work prove inferior to such specimens, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, or other officer duly authorized to canvass the same, such work will be refused.

The successful bidder will be required to execute under the terms of his contract, all printing and binding for the State, which the present contractor is not bound to execute, or which he claims not to be under the provisions of his contract from the execution of such contract to the first day of January next.

The contract may be annulled for unreasonable delay in doing the work, or for doing it in an inferior or improper manner. The contract for such printing to be made and executed under and subject to the provisions of chapter 114 of the general laws of 1858, above referred to, to the details of which, as well as to the specifications and requirements as to bids, above referred to, the attention of bidders is particularly called.

Proposals must be sealed and marked on the outside "Proposals for Printing," and be sent through the post office, directed to the Secretary of State Madison, Wis."

Given under our hands, at the Capitol in Madison, this 2[illegible] day of Aug., A. D. 1858.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.
WHAT? WHY A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.
Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly on the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shriveled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:
DR. WOOD: New York, April 19th, 1858.
Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligation I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color. About the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your Hair Restorative, it soon recovered its former hue. I consider your Hair Restorative as a very wonderful invention—quite efficacious as well as agreeable. I am, dear sir, yours truly, S. THALBERG.
"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."
WELSH NEWSPAPER OFFICE, 113 Nassau st., April 12, 1858.
PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir: Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it to my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color; but to her, as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hair back to brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change in their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.
New York, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD: With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being a most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers, which were almost white, have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It has also relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KILBY.
PROF. WOOD—About two years ago my hair commenced falling off and turning gray; I was fast becoming bald, and had tried many Remedies to no effect. I commenced using your Restorative in January last. A few applications fastened my hair firmly. It began to fill up, grew out, and turned back to its former color, (black.) At this time it is fully restored to its original color, health and appearance, and I cheerfully recommend its use to all. J. D. HOES.
Chicago, Ill, May 1, 1857.
The Restorative is put up in bottles of 3 sizes, viz: large, medium and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least 20 per cent more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent more in proportion, and retails for $3.

BADGER STATE BOWLING SALOON
No. 107 Main Street.
☞ Pins and Balls for sale, and sent to any part of the country. dec18 P. LAURENCE.

A Card from Dr. James M. Jarrett,
OF THE NEW YORK LUNG INFIRMARY.—My connection for the past eight years with the above Institution, as Chief Physician, and a twelve years' course of steady devotion to the cure of Pulmonary Consumption and its kindred diseases, together with my unrivalled opportunities and advantage of pathological research—aided not a little by a perfect system of Medical Inhalation—has enabled me to arrive at a decisive, direct, and successful course of treatment for the positive cure of all diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Air-Passages. By Inhalation, the vapor and curative properties of medicines are directly addressed to the diseased organs and the integument. I do not advise the use of Medical Inhalation of any kind, to the exclusion of general treatment; and although I consider it a useful adjuvant in the proper management of those fearful and often fatal diseases, yet I deem it very necessary that each patient should have the benefit of both general and local treatment. The success of my treatment in the above diseases, and the high character of the Institution over which I have so long had the honor to preside, are too well known to need any eulogy or commendation from me. At the solicitation of many private and professional friends, through whose philanthropic aid the above charity has been long and liberally supported, after due consideration, I have concluded to make such arrangements as will bring benefits of my experience and treatment within reach of all, and not to confine myself, as heretofore, to those only who entered the Infirmary, or who were able to visit me at my office. Hoping therefore that the arrangement will give entire satisfaction, both to my professional brethren and the public, I would respectfully announce in conclusion, that I can now be consulted personally or by letter, on all diseases as above, and that the medicines, the same as used in the Institution, prepared to suit each individual case. Inhaling Vapors, Medical Inhalers, &c., &c., will be forwarded to any part of the United States or the Canadas. TERMS—My terms for treatment by letter are as follows, viz: $12 per month for each patient which will include medicine sufficient for one month's use; also, Inhaling Vapor, and an Inhaling Apparatus. Payment as follows: $6 to be paid to Express Agent on receipt of the box of Medicine, and the balance $6 at the expiration of the month, if the patient be cured or is entirely satisfied with the treatment. Patients, by giving a full history of their case, and their symptoms in full, can be treated as well by letter as by personal examination. Patients availing themselves of Dr. Jarrett's treatment may rely upon immediate and permanent relief, as he seldom has to treat a case over thirty days. Letters for advice promptly answered. For further particulars address JAMES M. JARRETT, M. D., No. 320 Broadway, cor. Twelfth st., N. Y.
P. S.—Physicians and others visiting the city are respectfully invited to call at the Infirmary, where many interesting cases can be witnessed, and where our improved apparatus for the inhalation of medicated vapor can be seen and inspected. sep8d148d6mo

Dr. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 12 Wisconsin street.

GRAIN CLEANER & SEPARATOR.
HORTON'S PATENT.
G. B. BINGHAM & BRO.,
Sole Manufacturers in Wisconsin.
THIS MACHINE is of recent invention, and surpasses all others in use for its perfection as a thorough Separator and Scourer. It has given entire satisfaction in New York, Pennsylvania and other States where it has been introduced, and we are confident it is better adapted to the cleaning of Western grain than any other ever introduced into this State. It is also not liable to get out of repair, requires but little power to run it, and the scouring cylinder so constructed as to render it unnecessary to be renewed for years. We respectfully invite all Western Millers to give us a call, and examine our machine, at the Bay State Foundry, Florida st., Milwaukee, Wis. feb16d700dly

Uncle Sam spoke: "There shall be light!" and there was light!
Lewis Drucker spoke: "There shall be night—then come the guests and all is right!"
On every day—in every night,
Until the sun comes pure and bright,
Shall be a concert mild and sweet,
And each one have the loveliest treat;
There Homer flows in Nectar streams,
There sparkling wit-words the brightest seem.
